

ANARCHIST LET GO BY JUSTICE

Alexander Berkman Taken Into Custody by New York
Police.

UNKNOWN TO SILVERSTEIN

SERVED TWELVE YEARS FOR SHOOTING H. C. FRICK.

New York, March 30.—Efforts of the police to connect Selig Silverstein, the Union square bomb thrower, with the groups of anarchists have been successful, but thus far they have been unable to prove that his sensational act of Saturday was prompted in any way by these associates. These developments occurred today, after the arrest of Alexander Berkman, the anarchist leader and companion of Emma Goldman, who served twelve years in prison for shooting Henry C. Frick, the Pittsburgh capitalist. The detectives showed, when Berkman was arraigned in court, that Silverstein held a card of membership in the anarchists' federated union, of which Berkman is an officer, and this card was signed by Berkman, but their attempt to show that Berkman knew Silverstein or that he and his friends in any direct way incited the bomb throwing was for the time futile.

Anarchist Paroled.
The police asked Magistrate Droege, before whom Berkman was arraigned, to hold the anarchist for forty-eight hours as a suspicious person. The magistrate refused their request. The magistrate paroled Berkman on his own recognizance, the latter promising to appear whenever wanted.

Berkman was taken into custody on the strength of the card and a couple of circular letters found in Silverstein's apartment, all of which bore Berkman's signature. The letters were written in Hebrew and were requests for contributions for the defense of two anarchists recently arrested in Philadelphia charged with rioting.

The letters contained no statement of an incendiary character. Berkman was arrested while in the office of Mother Earth, an anarchist newspaper at 210 East Thirtieth street.

Shooting of Frick.
"This man admits that he shot, Henry C. Frick and that he served twelve years for it," said the inspector, facing the anarchist.

"The shooting of Frick was a personal matter," replied Berkman. "The anarchist does not believe in violence. He believes in working by peaceful means." "Have you any pamphlets or books on the subject?" the inspector asked.

"Yes, but none of them counsels violence. I do not believe in that." "This," said the inspector, turning to the detectives, "is a case of misdirected intelligence. This man has used his ability in the wrong direction."

"On that I take issue," answered Berkman very coolly.

Confronted with Silverstein.
After admitting that he signed the membership card found in Silverstein's possession, Berkman was taken to the hospital to confront Silverstein, but there was nothing in the meeting to indicate that the two ever met before. Berkman said that he had never before seen Silverstein, and the latter, who lay blindfolded on his cot because of the injuries to his eyes from the explosion, said after he heard Berkman's voice in conversation that he did not know the man.

A court, before Magistrate Droege paroled him, Berkman made a brief statement.

Wanted to Be Arrested.
"I am secretary of the union," he said, in reference to the cards and letters that

We need money for the families of the men who were killed in Philadelphia and for the men who are to be tried here. I remained at my house so that the police could arrest me, for I wanted to have this thing cleared up and have a chance to prove my innocence."

Silverstein Likely to Live.

Selig Silverstein, the bomb thrower, although said to be a sufferer from organic disease of the heart, is likely to survive the terrible injuries he suffered in the explosion. The physicians in attendance announced today that a piece of the bomb he threw has been extracted from near the right ear cavity. It passed through his right eye and lodged in the skull at the back of the ear. Curiously enough, it was a policeman, one of the men Silverstein sought to kill, who is reported to have been the one who threw the bomb. This man, immediately after the explosion, applied a tourniquet to the stump of Silverstein's mangled arm and thus prevented his bleeding to death.

Will Be Tried for Murder.

If Silverstein recovers he will be placed on trial for murder in the first degree for killing Ignatz Hildebrand, who it now appears, was an innocent bystander attracted to Union square only by curiosity.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

R. Spiegel, 124 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder troubles which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had tried the best physicians, who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me, and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured. I am now as well as ever. J. Bishop Spalding Gives Interesting Lecture at Y. M. C. A.

At the Y. M. C. A. last evening Bishop Spalding gave a most interesting series of lectures on the origin of the Bible. His topic for the evening was "The Origin of the Old Testament." He emphasized the fact that the Bible has no equal in English literature, and that, although it has a vocabulary of only 6,543 words, 80 per cent of which are Anglo-Saxon, as compared with Shakespeare's vocabulary of 25,000 words, it expresses itself unparalled in literature.

Next Monday evening Bishop Spalding will speak on "The Origin of the New Testament," the following Monday evening on "The English Bible," and the last number of the series will be "The Inspiration of the Bible."

WHAT IS APRIL TO BRING?

Record of Thirty-Three Years May Assist in Guiding the Self-Appointed Prognosticator.

For thirty-three years there have been Aprils, official Aprils. Presently there will be another official April. It begins tomorrow, with All Fools' day. The weather bureau has kept accurate tab on the Aprils for the thirty-three Aprils and the results show that the weather conditions have been during the months in the years that have gone before.

The record shows that the mean or normal temperature was 53 degrees, the warmest month was in 1889, with an average of 55; the coldest was in 1883, when the average was 46. The highest temperature occurred in 1889, on April 27, when the thermometer registered 84; the lowest temperature was 18 on the first in 1886.

The average date on which killing frost occurred in the spring was April 23, the latest date in the spring, June 18.

During the thirty-three years the record of precipitation showed an average for the month of 2.13 inches. The heaviest precipitation in any twenty-four hours was on April 6, 1882, when 1.40 inches fell. The greatest amount of snowfall for any twenty-four hours was six inches on April 21, 1904. The report just came to show what April weather has done and what it might do.

Living in weather of the past, however, does not satisfy. Knowing that the bureau has kindly informed the public that the weather today will be partly cloudy with local rain. The promise yesterday morning was for warmer weather during the night and it is safe to assume that the warmth will extend over into Tuesday.

Yesterday's temperatures were all right. There was a maximum of 53 and a minimum of 32. The only matter with the weather yesterday was a disagreeable wind. The wind, however, did no harm; it was temperate and a good natural sort of breeze. The official record for the day shows:

Temperature at 6 p. m., 50 degrees; maximum temperature, 53 degrees; minimum temperature, 32 degrees; mean temperature, 42 degrees, which is 4 degrees below normal.

Total excess of temperature since the first of the month, 15 degrees; accumulated excess of temperature since Jan. 1, 171 degrees. Total precipitation, none; total precipitation since the first of the month, 1.45 inch, which is .45 inch below normal. Accumulated deficiency since Jan. 1, 1.40 inch. Relative humidity at 6 p. m., 38 per cent.

Arrested for Nevada Offense.

RELIGION IN THE COUNCIL

Mayor and Councilmen Engage in Debate Over Removal of Policemen.

Church and politics figured in last night's session of the city council. After a monotonous amount of routine matters had been disposed of a motion to adjourn was made, but before it could be entertained Councilman Thomas claimed the floor and then things happened.

He wanted to go on record against the action of the last meeting in discharging three policemen from the force. Councilman Powers helped the thing along by volunteering the information that the three men who were discharged were members of the Catholic church. Chairman Humphreys in a reply that was tinged with sarcasm said that it was a late hour for religion to be breaking into the council and that no thought had been given to the religious side of the question when the removals were decided upon.

President Browning, another member of the police committee, said that the discharging of the men was a business proposition and in plain words he said that no official of the Mormon church could dictate to him when making appointments. Dickson, the third member of the police committee, expressed the thought that it was about time for a new police committee and said he was ready to resign. No attention was paid to these remarks. After Thomas and Humphreys had exchanged compliments and several others had announced their decision to be on the council before the session was adjourned.

The matter was put to a vote and the privilege extended to the mayor, who in his short address denied having suggested the removal of any particular men from the police force. He admitted, however, suggesting a cut to reduce expenses.

Councilman Evans presented a resolution providing for the erection of a heating plant to supply heat for all public buildings. The resolution was adopted and the city engineer was instructed to take the matter up at once.

The sanitary inspector reported 108 new cases of contagion, 71 of which were measles.

Without comment forty-seven liquor licenses were renewed.

Dr. Calder also declared that there was less insanity per capita in Utah than in any state in the Union. He advocated two separate institutions for the care of insane people. One of these should be maintained for the feeble-minded, and epileptics and the other for the insane persons.

After discussion the commissioners decided that unclaimed dead bodies of convicts might go to the state university for dissection, but not those of inmates of the county infirmary.
